

NHSO FAMILY CONCERTS

Young children and their grownups get a lively introduction to the orchestra and its music through these family-friendly performances. Immerse your child in music at these hour long concerts enhanced by narration and visuals.

All concerts begin at 2pm with an Instrument Discovery Zone at 1:30pm

WHAT IF MOZART PLAYED GUITAR HERO?

Saturday, January 21, 2012 Omni Hotel, New Haven

Sunday, January 22, 2012 Shelton Intermediate School

How does rock music differ from the music of Mozart? Compare and contrast music of centuries past as the NHSO String Quartet reinterprets classic rock songs in the style of Mozart.

FROM HAYDN TO HIP HOP

Saturday, February 11, 2012 Omni Hotel, New Haven

Sunday, February 12, 2012 Shelton Intermediate School

Explore the relationships between varied music and dance styles as teaching artists The Hip Hop Dimensions heat up the dance floor while accompanied by an NHSO ensemble.

MIKE MULLIGAN AND HIS STEAM SHOVEL

Saturday, March 17, 2012 Omni Hotel, New Haven

Sunday, March 18, 2012 Shelton Intermediate School

Students are introduced to woodwind instruments through this triumphant children's story composed and narrated by Yale Music Professor Thomas C. Duffy.

Bring your school's students at a group discount on the weekend or arrange a private performance for your school.

Tickets: $15/adult, $12/senior, $5/child

NewHavenSymphony.org

EDUCATION PROGRAMS

www.NewHavenSymphony.org

MUSIC IN YOUR SCHOOL

Creating Musical Readers (Grades Pre-K to 2)

Children build literacy and a love of reading as an NHSO musician brings a story to life with their musical instrument.

Two 45 Minute Sessions or Three 30 Minute Sessions : $230

SAVE by purchasing the Introduction to Instruments Package:

Includes four Creating Musical Readers programs featuring
Woodwind, Brass, Percussion, and Strings instrument books.

Four program series: $850

What If Mozart Played Guitar Hero?*( Grades 2-8)

Be amazed as a rockin' group of NHSO musicians reinterpret classic rock songs featured in Guitar Hero in the style of Mozart.

Two 50 Minute performances: $1,250

One 50 Minute performance: $995

New Lower Price!!

* Available January-June 2012

Workshops, Master Classes, and Residencies (Grades 7-12)

Your students will play like pros after an NHSO musician coaches them on performance technique in one-on-one sessions or in sectionals.

Two 45 Minute Sessions or Three 30 Minute Sessions: $230

The New Haven Symphony Orchestra is for YOU!

Presenting grants available through CT Young Audiences and New England Foundation for the Arts for NHSO performances

FIELD TRIPS

Young People's Concert (Grades 2-8)

Our American Music

Wednesday, April 25, 2012, Woolsey Hall, New Haven 9:30 or 11:30am

Bring your students to New Haven's historic Woolsey Hall to experience the full NHSO in concert. Students will learn about their American musical heritage through works by prominent American composers Aaron Copland, Morton Gould, and Connecticut's State Composer Charles Ives.

Tickets: $7 per student, chaperones free of charge

Young People's Concert Prep Sessions

This musical introduction by an NHSO musician to the Young People's Concert program has been described as essential to the students learning and enjoyment of the full symphony experience.

Two 45 Minute Sessions or Three 30 Minute Sessions: $180

All sessions must be scheduled "back to back" within a 1 1/2 hour period

To schedule programs contact Aric Isaacs at aisaacs@NewHavenSymphony.org or 203-865-0831 x10